

Guidelines: Changing Boarding Station of your journey

1. In case the boarding station is changed within 24 hours of departure of train, no refund shall be permissible in normal circumstance; however, in exceptional circumstances like cancellation of train, non-attachment of coach, late running of train by more than three hours, normal refund rules shall be applicable.
2. In case a passenger has changed the boarding station, he/she will lose all the rights to board the train from the original boarding station. If found travelling without any proper authority to travel, passenger will have to pay fare with penalty between original boarding station to changed boarding station.
3. Boarding station change is not allowed if ticket is seized.
4. Boarding station change is not allowed for the PNRs with VIKALP option.
5. Online boarding station change is not allowed for I-Ticket.
6. Boarding station change is not allowed for current booking ticket.
7. If boarding station has been changed at the time of booking, then passengers can change boarding station one more time from “Booked Ticket History” section.

To know how to change boarding point, please click here.